October is the 15th Anniversary of LGBT History Month. The LGBT community is the only community worldwide that is not taught its history at home, in public schools or in religious institutions. LGBT History Month provides role models, builds community and makes the civil rights statement about their extraordinary national and international contributions.

Michelangelo is one of those extraordinary contributors to the LGBTQ community and to all of us with his sharp and astute political analysis of our times. He will share with us contributions of LGBTQ community icons in honor of history month and, also, provide some hard-hitting commentary of what may lay ahead for all of us, politically, now that we're facing a more that contentious presidential election, a nail-biting Senatorial race, and a new out-of-the main stream justice on the Supreme Court.

Interview Guests:

Michelangelo Signorile is a journalist, author, blogger (The Signorile Report), and radio host. His radio program, The Michelangelo Signorile Show on Sirius XM Radio is aired each weekday across the United States, Canada and globally online.

Michelangelo was editor-at-large for HuffPost from 2011-2019. He is a political liberal and covers a wide variety of political and cultural issues. Michelangelo is noted for his various books and articles on gay and lesbian politics, and is an outspoken supporter of gay rights. In August 2011, Michelangelo was inducted into the National Lesbian and Gay Journalists Association LGBT Journalist Hall of fame.

Adam Spickler was elected to the Cabrillo College Board of Trustees in 2018 to represent roughly 27,000 residents in Santa Cruz County and, Adam, is the first openly transgender MAN to hold elected office, at any level, in the state of California. In addition to serving as a Cabrillo Trustee, Adam is a Senior Analyst for the County of Santa Cruz Human Services Department and prior to working for the County, Adam spent seven years as senior district staff for two state lawmakers—CA State Senator Bill Monning and former CA State Assembly member and Secretary of Natural Resources John Laird.
