You’ve Never Heard Of”

The American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) is a pay-to-play operation in which legislators and corporate lobbyists meet behind closed doors to write model legislation that advances a radical right-wing, pro-corporate, and pro-Republican agenda on everything from suppressing voter access and denying the climate breakdown to crushing unions and undermining public education.

ALEC embraced the Christian Right extremists who pushed for the nationwide abortion ban and, at last summer’s annual meeting, they celebrated the Supreme Court’s recent ruling, removing the right to an abortion in the United States, over a “late night, dessert and coffee.”

ALEC members are urgently strategizing their efforts to radically rewrite the US Constitution and are blacklisting “woke” companies that embrace climate protection goals.

Common Cause is shining a light and fighting them!

Interview Guest:

Viki Harrison is currently Common Cause’s “Director of Constitutional Convention and Protecting Dissent Programs.” She leads the non-profit’s work on stopping a dangerous constitutional convention that would rewrite the entire United States Constitution. Viki previously served as Director of State Operations for Common Cause and was the Executive Director in Common Cause New Mexico. Viki Harrison graduated summa cum laude from the University of New Mexico with a degree in Women’s Studies and African American Studies.
