Have you been wondering lately about what, exactly, is happening around the world? Are you curious about what the United States is trying to accomplish out there? Do you understand Brexit or why our President thinks it's so great? And are you thoroughly confused by the dueling Twitters emanating from the White House, State Department, Pentagon, National Security Agency and others. Well, wonder no more.

Dr. Ronnie Lipschutz, University of Santa Cruz Politics Dept. Professor is going to (try to) explain US foreign policy in the Age of Trump.
