Keep at least one eye open and focused on the climate crisis these next two years!

The House of Representatives most likely will be Republican controlled.
It is sad to say, the Grand Old Party has no interest in writing active policies to address the climate emergency.

How will the midterm election results affect the long-term climate crisis?

How will "deny-o-saurs" continue to block progress?

Big stakes are involved!

Learn about Green TV - that picks up where the mainstream media leaves off, offering the public compelling science and solutions-based programming in support of environmental sustainability, social justice, and spiritual wisdom - and the actions needed to further these goals.
